

DIVINE DESIGNS & EVENTS

Growth Packet

A practical plan to expand from founder-led event production into corporate accounts, rentals, education, fabric/material sales, and international workshops.

Master Growth Packet

Divine Designs & Events Master Growth Packet

Created: 2026-08-28

Executive Direction

Divine Designs & Events should move from a founder-dependent event design business into a diversified event industry brand with several connected revenue streams.

The immediate focus should be corporate accounts, luxury event design, and rentals because those areas can create cash flow and repeat relationships fastest. Education, fabric/material sales, and Middle East workshops should be built in sequence after the first offers are organized and tested.

Core Positioning

Divine Designs & Events creates elevated event environments for corporate, luxury, hospitality, fashion, and private clients who want their event to feel intentional, memorable, and visually powerful.

The company should not be positioned as simple decor. The strongest positioning is transformation, creative direction, event production, and trusted execution.

Growth Divisions

1. Corporate Accounts

Primary growth priority.

Target companies, brands, hotels, restaurants, agencies, venues, and organizations that hold multiple events throughout the year.

Best event types:

- Brand activations
- Product launches
- Corporate receptions
- Holiday events
- Employee experiences
- Grand openings
- VIP events
- Fashion and beauty events
- Conferences and lounges

Goal:

Build recurring corporate relationships instead of relying only on one-time private events.

2. Event Design and Production

Continue using the existing strength of the company: transforming spaces into complete experiences.

This remains the credibility engine of the brand. Every rental, class, and supply offer becomes stronger because it is backed by real event production experience.

3. Chair and Table Rentals

Build a focused rental division around items Divine Designs already uses or frequently sources.

Start with inventory that has repeat demand:

- Chairs
- Tables
- Draping fabric
- Draping hardware
- Linens if cleaning/storage can be handled

The rental division should serve planners, venues, caterers, corporations, private clients, and other event designers.

4. Classes and Business Development

Turn nearly 20 years of event experience into a teachable product.

First class:

Launch and Price Your Event Design Business Like a Professional

Topics:

- Event design foundations
- Draping and installations
- Pricing and profitability
- Client consultations
- Sales conversations
- Vendor sourcing
- Proposals and presentations
- Event execution
- Turning creative talent into a sustainable business

5. Fabric and Event Material Sales

Build this after the class audience starts forming.

Best starting products:

- White fabric rolls
- Ivory fabric rolls
- Black fabric rolls
- Sheer fabric
- Premium draping fabric
- Draping starter kits
- Basic accessories

The strongest model is education plus materials: students learn from Divine Designs, then buy their supplies from Divine Designs.

6. Middle East Classes

Important long-term opportunity, but not the first move.

First prove the class locally or online. Then use testimonials, photos, curriculum, and student results to pitch international partners.

Potential markets:

- Dubai
- Abu Dhabi
- Doha
- Riyadh
- Jeddah
- Kuwait City
- Amman
- Beirut

First 90 Days

First 30 Days

- Create corporate capability sheet.
- Create portfolio PDF by category.
- Create rental inventory/pricing sheet.
- Create class waitlist form.
- Update website language.
- Build 200-prospect list.

- Email 100 prospects.
- Reconnect with 25 past clients/vendors.
- Post 12 authority/portfolio pieces.

Days 31-60

- Book meetings with venues, hotels, restaurants, planners, agencies, and corporate contacts.
- Pitch corporate holiday events, launches, receptions, and VIP experiences.
- Offer rentals to planners and venues.
- Announce a preview class.
- Collect student emails.
- Build case studies from past events.
- Collect testimonials.

Days 61-90

- Secure 2-3 recurring corporate, venue, planner, or agency relationships.
- Launch first paid workshop.
- Purchase only rental inventory with confirmed demand.
- Start monthly email newsletter.
- Separate contact lists by audience.
- Create operating templates for proposals, rentals, classes, and consultations.

Weekly Execution Rhythm

- Monday: Add and clean prospects.
- Tuesday: Send new outreach.
- Wednesday: Follow up and book meetings.
- Thursday: Visit/call venues, hotels, planners, and restaurants.
- Friday: Send proposals, review pipeline, post content, and update the dashboard.

Immediate Sales Assets

The following files are ready in this folder:

- Corporate capability sheet
- Offer structure
- Outreach templates
- Prospect tracker
- Rental division plan

- Education division plan
- Fabric/material plan
- Middle East expansion plan
- Website copy
- Social content starter

Most Important Next Step

Build the prospect list and begin outreach.

The business cannot scale from planning alone. The next stage starts when Divine Designs & Events has a clear offer, a clean portfolio, a target list, and a weekly outreach rhythm.

90-Day Action Plan

Divine Designs & Events 90-Day Action Plan

Strategic Goal

Turn Divine Designs & Events from a founder-dependent event design company into a diversified event industry brand with repeatable revenue streams.

Priority Order

- Corporate accounts
- Core event design and production
- Rentals
- Education
- Fabric/material sales
- Middle East expansion

Do not launch all divisions equally at the same time. Lead with the strongest cash and credibility channels first, then build the supporting divisions.

First 30 Days: Build the Sales Foundation

Brand and Sales Assets

- Finalize the core positioning statement.
- Create a corporate capability sheet.
- Create a portfolio PDF organized by category:
 - Corporate and branded events
 - Luxury social events
 - Before/after transformations
 - Draping and installations
 - Tablescape and room design
 - Venue transformations
- Create a rental inventory sheet, even if the starting inventory is small.
- Create a class/waitlist landing page or form.
- Create three proposal package levels:
 - Essential

- Signature
- Full Transformation

Prospect Building

- Build a list of 200 prospects.
- Split the list into:
 - Corporate marketing contacts
 - PR and experiential agencies
 - Hotels and venues
 - Restaurants and lounges
 - Planners and caterers
 - Beauty, fashion, wellness, and luxury brands
- Add every past client, vendor, and venue relationship to the tracker.

Outreach Targets

- Send 100 personalized introduction emails.
- Connect with 50 prospects on LinkedIn.
- Reconnect with 25 past clients/vendors.
- Visit or call 10 venues, restaurants, hotels, or planners.
- Post 12 pieces of portfolio content.

Days 31-60: Start Selling and Testing

Corporate and Venue Development

- Book meetings with hotels, restaurants, planners, agencies, and corporate contacts.
- Pitch upcoming corporate events:
 - Holiday events
 - Product launches
 - Brand activations
 - Employee appreciation events
 - Grand openings
 - Client receptions
- Ask every contact: "Who plans your events throughout the year?"

Rental Division

- Identify the top 3 rental items that get requested most often.
- Price those items against local competitors.

- Buy only inventory with repeat demand or confirmed client need.
- Create delivery, setup, damage, and deposit rules.
- Offer rentals to planners, venues, caterers, and past clients.

Education Division

- Announce one preview class:
- "Launch and Price Your Event Design Business Like a Professional"
- Collect emails from interested students.
- Host either a free preview session or a low-ticket paid workshop.
- Record questions students ask. Those questions become the future curriculum.

Days 61-90: Turn Activity Into Systems

Revenue Targets

- Secure 2-3 recurring corporate, venue, planner, or agency relationships.
- Book at least one paid workshop.
- Generate rental inquiries from planners and venues.
- Build separate contact lists for:
 - Corporate clients
 - Venues
 - Planners/vendors
 - Rental customers
 - Students
 - Material buyers

Operating Systems

- Create a standard proposal template.
- Create a standard design consultation intake form.
- Create a rental agreement template.
- Create a class registration process.
- Create a weekly sales dashboard:
 - New prospects added
 - Emails sent
 - Follow-ups sent
 - Meetings booked
 - Proposals sent

- Deals closed
- Revenue closed

Weekly Operating Rhythm

- Monday: Build and clean prospect list.
- Tuesday: Send new outreach.
- Wednesday: Follow up and book meetings.
- Thursday: Venue/planner visits and calls.
- Friday: Proposal work, content posting, and dashboard review.

Decision Rule

Every new idea must answer one question:

Does this create repeatable revenue, stronger positioning, or a reusable asset?

If yes, move it forward. If not, save it for later.

Houston Prospect Batch Notes

Houston Prospect Batch 1

Created: 2026-08-28

Strategy

This first batch prioritizes Houston-area contacts that are likely to touch events repeatedly:

- Convention and tourism sales teams
- Event services contacts
- Hotels and venues
- Event planners and caterers
- Experiential and brand activation agencies

The strongest first-touch angle is not "Do you need decor?" It is:

Divine Designs & Events is expanding as a design, production, rental, and event transformation partner for corporate, hospitality, luxury, and branded events.

Priority Follow-Up Order

- Houston First / Visit Houston corporate, convention, and event services contacts
- Luxury hotels and larger venues
- Planners, caterers, and event companies
- Experiential/brand activation agencies
- Fabric/material prospects after the class offer launches

Files

- CLIENT_PROSPECTS_HOUSTON_BATCH_1.csv - first public-contact prospect batch.
- OUTREACH_TEMPLATES.md - general outreach sequence.
- OUTREACH_SEQUENCE_CORPORATE.md - specific first, second, and third email sequence.

Use Notes

- Personalize the first line for high-priority prospects.
- Do not send all contacts in the same organization the same message at the same time.
- For Houston First and Visit Houston, start with 2-3 best contacts, then ask for the correct route.
- For planners and caterers, lead with partnership and rental/design support.
- For hotels and venues, lead with preferred event design/production partner support.

- For agencies, lead with reliable local production/design support for activations and branded experiences.

Rental Division Plan

Chair and Table Rental Division Plan

Objective

Create a rental division that generates revenue whether or not Divine Designs & Events is producing the full event.

Starting Strategy

Do not buy broad inventory immediately. Start with items that are repeatedly requested, easy to store, easy to price, and useful for Divine Designs' own events.

Phase 1 Inventory

Start with:

- Chairs
- Tables
- Basic draping fabric
- Basic draping hardware
- Linens only if storage and cleaning are manageable

Avoid early overbuying in specialty colors or trendy pieces unless there is a confirmed client or repeated demand.

Ideal Rental Customers

- Event planners
- Wedding planners
- Venues
- Caterers
- Restaurants
- Corporate clients
- Private clients
- Decorators who need inventory support

Rental Rules To Create

- Minimum rental order
- Delivery fee

- Setup fee
- Pickup fee
- Damage deposit
- Replacement cost
- Late return fee
- Weather/outdoor use policy
- Cleaning policy
- Same-day pickup policy
- Client responsibility after delivery

Pricing Model

Track each item with:

- Purchase cost
- Rental price per event
- Delivery/setup labor
- Storage cost
- Replacement cost
- Number of rentals needed to recover cost

Simple rule:

If an item cannot reasonably pay for itself within 5-10 rentals, be careful before buying it.

30-Day Tasks

- List current owned inventory.
- Identify top 10 items frequently sourced from outside vendors.
- Price competitors locally.
- Create rental sheet.
- Create rental inquiry form.
- Create basic rental agreement.

60-Day Tasks

- Offer rentals to 25 planners/venues/caterers.
- Track the most requested items.
- Buy only confirmed-demand inventory.
- Photograph all owned inventory professionally.

90-Day Tasks

- Publish rental page on website.
- Create planner/vendor rental pricing.
- Create repeat-client discount rules.
- Build preferred planner/venue rental relationships.

Education Division Plan

Education and Business Development Division Plan

Objective

Turn nearly 20 years of experience into a teachable business asset that can generate revenue beyond event production.

First Offer

Launch and Price Your Event Design Business Like a Professional

Best First Audience

- New event decorators
- Existing decorators who are underpricing
- Creative entrepreneurs entering events
- Wedding/event assistants who want their own business
- Designers who need structure, pricing, and proposal skills

First Workshop Format

- 2-3 hour live in-person workshop
- Limited seats
- Paid or free preview with paid upgrade
- Collect email addresses from everyone interested
- Capture questions for future course modules

Curriculum Modules

- Event design foundations
- Creative concept development
- Client consultation process
- Pricing and profitability
- Proposal building
- Vendor sourcing
- Draping and installation basics

- Event execution checklist
- How to sell transformation instead of decor
- How to turn creative talent into a business

Offer Ladder

- Free preview class or webinar
- Paid beginner workshop
- Full event design business course
- Draping and installation masterclass
- Advanced business development mentorship
- International masterclass

Revenue Connections

Students can become:

- Fabric buyers
- Rental customers
- Referral partners
- Future assistants/contractors
- Online course buyers

30-Day Tasks

- Create class title and outline.
- Create waitlist form.
- Post announcement content.
- Invite past assistants, decorators, planners, and interested followers.
- Set a date for the first preview.

60-Day Tasks

- Host first preview.
- Collect feedback.
- Sell first paid workshop.
- Record common questions.
- Photograph/video the teaching environment.

90-Day Tasks

- Run first paid workshop.

- Build the full curriculum from the workshop.
- Create student testimonial process.
- Start planning online version.

Fabric Supply Division Plan

Fabric and Event Material Sales Division Plan

Objective

Move Divine Designs & Events from only consuming fabric and event materials to also supplying them to planners, decorators, venues, students, and designers.

Strategic Fit

This division should connect directly to the education division.

Students learn draping and event design from Divine Designs, then buy the materials they need from Divine Designs.

Best Starting Products

- White fabric rolls
- Ivory fabric rolls
- Black fabric rolls
- Sheer fabric
- Premium draping fabric
- Draping clips and accessories
- Basic pipe-and-drape supplies later

Ideal Customers

- Event decorators
- Wedding planners
- Venues
- Churches/community halls
- New event business owners
- Students from Divine Designs classes
- DIY clients needing professional materials

Launch Strategy

Start with a small set of core materials. Do not launch a large supply store immediately.

Begin by selling:

- Preordered fabric rolls
- Class material kits
- Draping starter kits
- Common neutral colors

30-Day Tasks

- Identify the top fabric types used most often.
- Source wholesale pricing.
- Calculate margins, shipping, and storage.
- Create a simple preorder offer.
- Create a class kit list.

60-Day Tasks

- Test fabric sales with students and local decorators.
- Bundle fabric with draping workshops.
- Photograph product samples.
- Build supplier relationships.

90-Day Tasks

- Add fabric/material page to website.
- Create recurring order list.
- Build local pickup/shipping rules.
- Expand only based on actual demand.

Middle East Expansion Plan

Middle East Expansion Plan

Objective

Take Divine Designs & Events' event design education internationally, especially into Middle Eastern markets with strong demand for weddings, luxury events, hospitality, and high-end celebrations.

Timing

Do not make this the first move.

First prove the education offer locally or online. Then use the proven curriculum, testimonials, photos, and student results to pitch international workshops.

Best Fit Markets To Explore

- Dubai
- Abu Dhabi
- Doha
- Riyadh
- Jeddah
- Kuwait City
- Amman

LinkedIn Post Draft

After nearly 20 years in the event industry, Divine Designs & Events is entering a new chapter.

We are expanding beyond individual event production into a broader event industry platform focused on corporate event design, venue transformation, rentals, education, and event materials.

Our strength has always been helping clients walk into a space and feel the transformation immediately.

Now we are building that experience into a more scalable model: recurring corporate accounts, planner and venue partnerships, rental support, and professional education for the next generation of event designers.

If your company, venue, agency, or organization is planning launches, receptions, VIP events, holiday events, or branded experiences, I would love to connect.

Divine Designs & Events is growing.

After nearly 20 years of transforming spaces for weddings, celebrations, corporate events, and private clients, we are expanding into a larger event industry brand.

More design. More rentals. More education. More ways to help clients, planners, venues, and future event professionals create unforgettable experiences.

This next chapter is about transformation at a bigger level.
